

THE dreaded pneumonia or "grippe" is relegated to the rear, and "Old Sol" with his penetrating rays is a constant reminder that we are candidates for Summer Attire.

Underwear

Exceptional values in this department. Goods were bought at clearing manufacturer's prices.

Lisle Thread Vests in white, cream and colors. Balbriggan Vests, Fashionable Ribbed Vests, Finest Egyptian Yarns, Gossamer Vests and in varieties—Novelty and staple.

Ginghams

The printings on Ginghams are recognized by all connoisseurs as the highest art in textile Dress Goods. Shaded Silk Ginghams, Pin Head and Stencil Checks, Solid colors in fancy shades, stripes and plaids, in wonderful varieties.

Hosiery

In these days of improvement and perfection we should follow the times. The "latest" costs no more than the time worn. Russet colors and tans, drop stitch, lisle thread, black staples. All the improvements in sewing and healing.

Corset Department

Contains a complete assortment of all the leading makes, including all the grades of ventilated and summer weight Corsets at selling prices.

Laces

For trimmings, for draperies, and for all uses this lovely fabric can be put to, we have in abundance.

Things

That are seldom written about, but needed just the same. We pay just as much attention to buying them right as we do expensive goods.

Silk Twist, Sewing Silk, Embroidered Silk, Battling Cotton, Cotton, Lined Thread, Bone Gearing, Belting, Skirt Bands, Veilings, Binding, Fringing, Binding, Taffeta Binding, Darning Wool, Darning Cotton, Carpet Thread, Macramé Cord, Corset Laces, Silk Corset Laces, Shoe Laces, Covered Dress Straps, Horn Bone, Corset Hooks and Eyes, India Rubber, Rolls of Tape, Pins, Hat Pins, Black Pins, Kid Crumpers, Montague Crumpers, Silk Tassels, Needle Cases, Shoe Buttons, Bone Buttons, Collar Buttons.

If you wish to be well and fashionably dressed TRADE AT OUR STORE. If you wish to save money, come to us first.

GORMAN'S GRAND DEPOT

KEYSTONE Academy

A refined school home. Prepares for the best colleges.

Thorough courses in Music and Art.

Teachers' Class gives preparation for Teaching.

Commercial Course includes Typewriting and shorthand.

Post notes secured for Graduates.

Read for new illustrated circular.

J. M. Loomis, A.M., Principal.

TAYLOR

The entertainment and social at the Methodist Episcopal church on Thursday night was a great success. Mollie Tracey Weston, an eloquentist of great ability, charmed the audience with recitations.

Miss Ida Carter, of Jermyn, is visiting Mr. Fred Wilson, at Rendham.

William Judge and James McDonald, of the First ward, left for Atlantic City yesterday.

The Ladies of Taylor, will play any ball team in the borough, the Electric preferred. James Kilmartin, captain; James Sullivan, manager.

The Calvary Baptist church will run an excursion to Farview on Tuesday.

The Price Library review, a form of newspaper, was read Thursday night at the business meeting of the Price Library association, and was attentively listened to by a large audience.

Tonight occurs the leading event of the week. The handsome reclining chair offered by the Ladies' auxiliary of the Price Library association to the person who guesses the exact number or comes the nearest to the number of shot in a glass ball will be decided. An elegant musical programme will be rendered by the Taylor orchestra, Will Morris, John E. Evans, Blanche Ward, Mattie Hayward, D. E. Jones and party. Ice cream will also be served. The admission is free.

PRICEBURG.

George Appleby will preach in the mission rooms next Sunday afternoon and Thomas Powell, of Olyphant, will preach in the evening. As many people around the neighborhood have heard these gentlemen preach before, they will not miss the opportunity of hearing them again. Service will begin at 2:30 and 6 o'clock. The mission rooms are in the Smith block, over the post office.

James McGowan, of Main street, is beautifying the exterior of his residence by a new coat of paint.

Mrs. John Burnett, of the Boulevard, is indisposed.

Miss Gertrude Watkins is visiting friends at Green Ridge.

Robert Estell, of Rebecca street, has raised his house several feet, which adds to the improvement of his already desirable property.

Mrs. Henry Jarvis is on the sick list.

The employees of Storrs' mines received their pay yesterday.

George, the 3-year-old son of W. C. Griffin, of Main street, is dangerously ill.

Mischievous boys who are in the habit of opening garden gates at night and allowing cows to enter and devour people's vegetables are warned to desist at once. If caught they will be made an example of.

We Are a Nation of Readers.

Readers of the Tribune.

The combined periodical issue in this country last year was over four thousand million, or, in American notation, 4,000,000,000 copies—an average of 300 copies of some periodical for each 10,000,000 families which make up our population.

PITTSBURGH.

About 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon an alarm of fire was turned in from box 56, located at the corner of Main and Market streets. The fire was discovered to be located in wooden barn at the rear of Martin Walsh's brick building on South Main street. The various fire companies responded quickly, and in a few minutes succeeded in extinguishing the flames before any serious damage was done. The fire is supposed to be the work of fire bugs.

Miss Kittle Judge, of Cork Lane, takes the place of Miss Whalen as deputy at the postoffice under the new administration of Postmaster Corcoran at Duryea.

The Leek Cornet band will give their next open air concert at the hospital grounds on Thursday evening, the 20th inst.

A child of Mr. and Mrs. John Manley, of Port Griffith, aged 14 months, died yesterday morning. Funeral this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

A consignment of new army knapsacks was received here yesterday from the headquarters of the National Guard, for Companies C and H.

Mrs. Keating, relict of the late John Keating, of Port Griffith, died at her home in that place yesterday morning. Funeral announcement later.

The Pittston High School alumni held their sixth annual reception and banquet Thursday evening in the Eagle hall on Kennebec street. The following named comprised the company that enjoyed the evening's entertainment: Anna D. Walsh, John Cowan, Kate Cunningham, Gertrude Morrow, R. A. Mulhail, Alice McHale, Martin Boston, Clara Collier, Will Collier, Florence McHale, Charles Morrow, John Nash, Lizzie Nash, Florence Abbott, Frank Abbott, Grace Morrow, Barbara Miller, Ella O'Malley, Anna Clark, James Egan, Roger Hines, Michael J. Langan, Patrick Egan, Professor Robert Shiel, James Murphy, Annie Cawley, M. E. Earley, Miss B. Cohen, Mr. M. P. Bole, Moran, Frank Tomlin, Mary Newcombe, James Whalen, Margaret Flanagan, John McNulty, Mary Maloney, Delta O'Malley, Bessie Stambach, J. Harold Mahon, Josephine Cawley, Thomas Cawley, Kate McKel, John McKel, Edna Kresge, Arthur Kresge, Margaret O'Brien, George O'Brien, Thomas Redding, Mame Redding.

In pursuance to a resolution at the recent quarterly convention of the societies representing the Third district Catholic Total Abstinence union, of Scranton diocese, the next quarterly convention will be held at St. Aloysius' hall in this place tomorrow, July 15. The convention will be called to order at 2 p. m.

With a view of making a grade of Main street before the work of laying the rails and etc., of the new electric road. A meeting of the citizens' advisory committee, members of the finance committee of council and the traction company officials was held in the Town hall yesterday. There were present Superintendent John Graham, Civil Engineer Wright, of the traction company; Dargoss Maloney, G. B. Reap and A. Clifford, of the finance committee, and Benj. Harding, John E. Law, Andrew Bryden, Thomas Morgan, C. Donnelly, James Fitzpatrick and P. W. Foran, of the advisory committee, were present. Burgess Maloney presided and John B. Law was elected secretary. Mr. Bartl, of Scranton, who has been engaged by the borough to make the grade of Main street, and who made the preliminary survey yesterday, was prevented from attending on account of illness. The question of the widening of the sidewalk to the middle of the present gutter was touched upon but no definite action was taken. In the absence of Engineer Bartl the following resolution offered by John B. Law was adopted: "Resolved, That the making of grade and locating of curbs on Main street be left to the borough engineer and the traction company engineer, the work to be done under the borough, finance committee of council, and the advisory committee." Burgess Maloney shared with the members of the committee the contract between the borough and traction company. It has been signed by President of Council J. J. Mangin, Secretary Dempsey and Burgess Maloney for the borough, and J. W. Hollenback, president, and C. J. Swan, secretary of the Pittston Car company.

Superintendent Graham says the company will commence Monday or Tuesday morning to build the electric road on Main street.

MOTHERS' MOTHERS! Mothers! Mothers! Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, always allays pain; cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

HALLSTEAD.

Two of our very estimable young ladies, Miss Ora Van Loan and Miss Myrtle Swartz, will enter the Bloomsburg State Normal school this fall. We wish them success.

Mrs. Rose Dayton is repairing her house on Dayton avenue.

Miss Myra Curran is visiting friends in Jackson.

Mrs. Daniel Swartz, of Scranton, who has been visiting friends in town, has returned home.

Mrs. W. C. Aney, of Foster is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Giles Carpenter.

Ex-Superintendent B. E. James, of Montrose, was shooting lambs with friends in town last week.

A. A. McCreary and wife, of New York, are expected to be here this week. It is with much pleasure that we welcome these pleasant people in our midst again.

Mrs. Andrew Shank, of Binghamton, is visiting friends in town.

Mrs. Dr. Brooke, of Binghamton, is spending a few days with friends in town.

Owing to the absence of the pastor of the Baptist church the Christian Endeavor society will have charge of the morning and evening services on Sunday. W. W. Adair will speak in the morning and there will be an interesting programme.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dusenberry, of Scranton, visited their parents at Great Bend this week.

Although the Otonomus House is not completed it accommodates thirty-four guests.

JERMYN.

The property of the late John Kearney, of the East Side, will be sold this morning 10 o'clock.

The Citizens band go to Farview Monday and will contest with other bands for prizes.

W. A. Bunting, of Scranton; A. C. Brungler, of Boston, and F. Bittenbender, of Nanticoke, were Jermyner yesterday.

N. Morris & Co. received a car of beef yesterday; the first since the strike began.

The employees of the Hillside Coal and Iron company will be paid today. The clerks from Taylor failed to put in an appearance yesterday. The boys here were on the verge of being ready to play and were much disappointed. Mine Host Avery had prepared a banquet which the boys here had to dispose of without assistance.

Miss Margaret Maule and scholars, assisted by Clark S. Thomas and Harry Storm, the electionist, will give a musical in the Methodist Episcopal church Monday evening.

CARBONDALE.

Yesterday occurred the union Sabbath school excursion and picnic to Farview. The Mozart band, which had been engaged for the occasion, paraded the principal streets previous to departing on the 8:30 a. m. excursion train. The first train carried many people and all other trains during the day carried pleasure seekers to the pleasant resort and it was undoubtedly one of the largest picnics of the season.

Miss Bart Wickwire, of Terrace street, is the guest of Mrs. F. W. Secor, of Honesdale.

Fred Jones attended a lawn party in Wilkes-Barre last evening.

Among the interesting features of the Columbia Hose company's picnic at Farview, the 20th, will be running horse races. They expect to have five entries and the winner's prize will be $50.

A meeting of the Mitchell Hose company on Thursday evening it was unanimously decided to accept the invitation to participate in the parade of the Archibald Fire company at Archibald on the evening of the 21st inst., it being the evening previous to the day of the Archibald Fire company's excursion to Farview.

Miss Jennie Angwer, of Terrace street, is visiting friends in Oacenta, N. Y.

Mrs. Frank McComb, of Scranton, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McComb, of Garfield street.

Miss Hattie Hatchins has returned from a visit with friends in Laneaster and Millerville.

Contractor Joseph O'Connor has nearly completed the laying of the vitrified brick guttering on Seventh avenue and the work is being done in an excellent manner.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock will occur the annual meeting of the Ladies' auxiliary of the Young Men's Christian association in the association parlors.

H. H. Tyler, of Binghamton, was a Carbondale caller yesterday.

Today occurred the excursion of the Welsh Baptist church of Providence to Farview, and on Monday the Knights of Father Mathew will run one there.

Mrs. Silas Hyle, of Honesdale, is visiting Carbondale relatives.

Improvements are being made on the Masonic hall building on Salem avenue.

Two children were badly hurt by the sawing at Farview yesterday.

A game of base ball at Farview yesterday between a club composed of Methodists and Episcopalians and a Presbyterian team resulted in a victory for the former. The score was 14-31.

E. Ensign, of Waymart, was a caller in this city last evening.

Bert Blahy, of Forest City, called on Carbondale friends yesterday.

In thousands of cases the cure of a cough is the preventive of consumption. The surest cough medicine in the world is Dr. Woods' Norway Pine Syrup. Sold by all dealers on a guarantee of satisfaction.

AVOCA.

Sunday ball playing has been indulged in to such an extent that it has become annoying to a large number of our residents and many complaints have been made. Chief of Police Rooden is determined to put a stop to Sunday ball playing. Notices will be posted in conspicuous places before Sunday warning all to refrain from participating in ball games upon that day, and in case the warning is unheeded the chief will have warrants issued for the arrest of every one violating the law.

Avoca school board will hold the regular monthly meeting on Monday night next.

Rev. McCabe attended the forty hours' devotion at Kingston this week.

This debating society held their regular semi-monthly entertainment Tuesday evening. An excellent programme was rendered, which proves that the members are working earnestly to make it a success.

Rev. Father Shanley, of Ashley, Murphy, of Olyphant, Kernan, of Parsons, and Curran, of Carbondale, visited the parochial residence on Wednesday.

Yesterday morning the building owned by Michael Scott, near the Catholic church, was completely destroyed by fire. The loss company promptly responded, but their efforts to save the building proved fruitless.

The Christian Endeavor societies are not represented at the convention in Olyphant.

Some merchants have been circulating through town during the past few days trying to pass off counterfeit money on some of our business people. This, however, created little excitement until some time during Thursday night, when they tried to effect an entrance into the Mercantile building, and upon finding their efforts built up a reputation for the frauds and out in fragments a valuable set of harp.

In a game of ball between the Pounders, Jr. boys, of not over 14 years, of North Avoca, and a club of young men from Duryea, the score was 13 to 29 in favor of the latter.

The following merchants of Avoca have agreed to close their respective stores of business at 7 o'clock p. m. from July 15 till Sept. 15, Saturday and night nights excepted; drug stores at 9 p. m.: J. H. Anderson, E. Mitchell, J. E. & S. J. McLachlan, Mrs. E. S. Torr, M. A. Fieck, Ronniman & Co., M. T. Hoban, Annie Callahan, G. H. Boone, E. Laird & Bro. and W. R. Manners. This includes all the merchants in town. Hollister & Bowman and McMillan & Co. had established that rule heretofore.

E. F. Longney, of Pittston, is the guest of his cousin, William Healey, of West Avoca.

ELMHURST.

Cristy Burmeister, of New York city, will spend the summer at the home of his uncle, Hugo Burmeister, on Main street.

Mrs. Clara Crismon had an exciting runaway one day last week. Her horse became unmanageable, throwing her from the wagon and injuring her quite seriously.

Misses Mand and Helen Snyder left for Rhinebeck, N. Y., Wednesday morning for a visit with relatives.

Young people's prayer meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Francis on Tuesday evening.

Miss Jennie Dunning gave a party in honor of her guest, Miss Ella Reynolds Friday evening.

Rev. George D. Meigs, of Geneva, N. Y., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Dunning, Jr.

Frank Foote, after an absence of several years in the west and Arctic regions, returned home last Thursday.

Mortimer Edwards and Charles Knickerbocker are engaged in sinking a well for John R. Farr.

E. J. Amundsen and wife were guests at Hotel Elmhurst this week.

HONESDALE.

The Sunday schools of Carbondale held a union picnic at Farview yesterday. This was a trip to Honesdale before stopping at Farview, and the Mozart band played one beautiful selection in front of the Delaware and Hudson depot before returning.

Albert Jones, of the Carbondale Herald, was a caller in town yesterday.

Misses Nell Hurlbut and Lark Doty, of Philadelphia, who have been visiting for several weeks' past at the home of Adolbert Gaylord on upper Main street, returned home yesterday.

The dance at the armory last night was a grand success.

Miss Anna Moon, of Carbondale, was a caller in town yesterday.

The picnic of the season will be held next Tuesday at Lake Ariel by the Red Men.

Paul W. Gardner returned home today after a two weeks' sojourn at Lake Winola.

Miss Louise Heft returned today after a short visit with friends at Lake Winola.

Theodore Herbst, the cartman, came very near having his rig badly damaged this afternoon. His horse was standing in front of the D-laware and Hudson office, when the horse started off and upset the wagon and himself. After considerable trouble the horse and wagon were righted without any material damage to either.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bacon, of Nicholson, are visiting at the home of Benjamin Gardner on East and Fourteenth street.

RELISH for Breakfast.

LOVE'S DRINKING CUP:

In olden times true lovers stole And drank from it, as proof of love, Till everything was blue. I should I foggily shoe purloin To drink from it, as proof of love, I never could get full because It would not hold enough! —Life.

THE GOSPELING GIBB:

Oh, the gossiping girl, with artless smile, Is a pain-ant sight to see, As she talks of her neighbor's faults mean-while With a savor of charity.

"You haven't heard?" she exclaimed with a sigh, "Oh, it's really true. I'm sure no one's more surprised than I—She was such a fine girl, too!"

Oh, the gossiping girl is an innocent thing, And she has for us all a charm, With her tongue that carries its deadly sting, For she never means any harm.

I once knew a fellow, the best of men, When I counted my life-long friend; But he married a gossiping girl, and then Our friendship came to an end. —Truth.

OF AN EXPANDING MIND:

The small boy is of powder not afraid, In smoke and flame he sees no end of fun; And never yet was a big cracker made But that he hankered for a bigger one. —Luck.

THE DAY AFTER:

There was a poor widow named Sloven, The mother of children eleven; Four went out for fun On the Fourth with a gun, And after she counted but seven. —Judge.

SEASIDE AND SHORE:

With a sigh that is soft as the zephyr at morn, She greets the young man in his wooing; At home he's a salesman; she's rich and high born; But his pathway with smiles she is strewn.

But there's difference vast between seaside and town; Expected many sad scholars, Next fall at the counter she'll stand with a frown, While he murmurs "That silk is $4." —Washington Star.

SEASIDE AND SHORE:

With a sigh that is soft as the zephyr at morn, She greets the young man in his wooing; At home he's a salesman; she's rich and high born; But his pathway with smiles she is strewn.

But there's difference vast between seaside and town; Expected many sad scholars, Next fall at the counter she'll stand with a frown, While he murmurs "That silk is $4." —Washington Star.

SEASIDE AND SHORE:

With a sigh that is soft as the zephyr at morn, She greets the young man in his wooing; At home he's a salesman; she's rich and high born; But his pathway with smiles she is strewn.

But there's difference vast between seaside and town; Expected many sad scholars, Next fall at the counter she'll stand with a frown, While he murmurs "That silk is $4." —Washington Star.

SEASIDE AND SHORE:

With a sigh that is soft as the zephyr at morn, She greets the young man in his wooing; At home he's a salesman; she's rich and high born; But his pathway with smiles she is strewn.

But there's difference vast between seaside and town; Expected many sad scholars, Next fall at the counter she'll stand with a frown, While he murmurs "That silk is $4." —Washington Star.

SEASIDE AND SHORE:

With a sigh that is soft as the zephyr at morn, She greets the young man in his wooing; At home he's a salesman; she's rich and high born; But his pathway with smiles she is strewn.

But there's difference vast between seaside and town; Expected many sad scholars, Next fall at the counter she'll stand with a frown, While he murmurs "That silk is $4." —Washington Star.

SEASIDE AND SHORE:

With a sigh that is soft as the zephyr at morn, She greets the young man in his wooing; At home he's a salesman; she's rich and high born; But his pathway with smiles she is strewn.

But there's difference vast between seaside and town; Expected many sad scholars, Next fall at the counter she'll stand with a frown, While he murmurs "That silk is $4." —Washington Star.

SEASIDE AND SHORE:

With a sigh that is soft as the zephyr at morn, She greets the young man in his wooing; At home he's a salesman; she's rich and high born; But his pathway with smiles she is strewn.

But there's difference vast between seaside and town; Expected many sad scholars, Next fall at the counter she'll stand with a frown, While he murmurs "That silk is $4." —Washington Star.

SEASIDE AND SHORE:

With a sigh that is soft as the zephyr at morn, She greets the young man in his wooing; At home he's a salesman; she's rich and high born; But his pathway with smiles she is strewn.

But there's difference vast between seaside and town; Expected many sad scholars, Next fall at the counter she'll stand with a frown, While he murmurs "That silk is $4." —Washington Star.

SEASIDE AND SHORE:

With a sigh that is soft as the zephyr at morn, She greets the young man in his wooing; At home he's a salesman; she's rich and high born; But his pathway with smiles she is strewn.

But there's difference vast between seaside and town; Expected many sad scholars, Next fall at the counter she'll stand with a frown, While he murmurs "That silk is $4." —Washington Star.

SEASIDE AND SHORE:

With a sigh that is soft as the zephyr at morn, She greets the young man in his wooing; At home he's a salesman; she's rich and high born; But his pathway with smiles she is strewn.

But there's difference vast between seaside and town; Expected many sad scholars, Next fall at the counter she'll stand with a frown, While he murmurs "That silk is $4." —Washington Star.

SEASIDE AND SHORE:

With a sigh that is soft as the zephyr at morn, She greets the young man in his wooing; At home he's a salesman; she's rich and high born; But his pathway with smiles she is strewn.

But there's difference vast between seaside and town; Expected many sad scholars, Next fall at the counter she'll stand with a frown, While he murmurs "That silk is $4." —Washington Star.

CUTICURA for the HAIR

With a clean, wholesome scalp, free from irritating and scaly eruptions, is produced by CUTICURA SOAP, the most effective skin purifying and beautifying soap in the world, as well as purest and sweetest for toilet, bath, and nursery. It clears the scalp and hair of crusts, scales, and dandruff, destroys microscopic insects which feed on the hair, soothes irritated and itching surfaces, stimulates the hair follicles, and supplies the roots with energy and nourishment. For the prevention of facial blemishes, for giving a brilliancy and freshness to the complexion, as well as for cleansing the scalp and invigorating the hair, it is without a peer.

For best complexion, only, moist skin, red, rough, hands and shaggy hair, dry skin and falling hair, and simple baby blemishes it is wonderful.

Sold throughout the world. Price, 25c. POTTER DRESS AND CHEM. CO., Sole Proprietors, Boston.

RELISH for Breakfast.

LOVE'S DRINKING CUP:

In olden times true lovers stole And drank from it, as proof of love, Till everything was blue. I should I foggily shoe purloin To drink from it, as proof of love, I never could get full because It would not hold enough! —Life.

THE GOSPELING GIBB:

Oh, the gossiping girl, with artless smile, Is a pain-ant sight to see, As she talks of her neighbor's faults mean-while With a savor of charity.

"You haven't heard?" she exclaimed with a sigh, "Oh, it's really true. I'm sure no one's more surprised than I—She was such a fine girl, too!"

Oh, the gossiping girl is an innocent thing, And she has for us all a charm, With her tongue that carries its deadly sting, For she never means any harm.

I once knew a fellow, the best of men, When I counted my life-long friend; But he married a gossiping girl, and then Our friendship came to an end. —Truth.

OF AN EXPANDING MIND:

The small boy is of powder not afraid, In smoke and flame he sees no end of fun; And never yet was a big cracker made But that he hankered for a bigger one. —Luck.

THE DAY AFTER:

There was a poor widow named Sloven, The mother of children eleven; Four went out for fun On the Fourth with a gun, And after she counted but seven. —Judge.

SEASIDE AND SHORE:

With a sigh that is soft as the zephyr at morn, She greets the young man in his wooing; At home he's a salesman; she's rich and high born; But his pathway with smiles she is strewn.

But there's difference vast between seaside and town; Expected many sad scholars, Next fall at the counter she'll stand with a frown, While he murmurs "That silk is $4." —Washington Star.

SEASIDE AND SHORE:

With a sigh that is soft as the zephyr at morn, She greets the young man in his wooing; At home he's a salesman; she